

AL focus

http://americanlibrariesmagazine.org/al_focus

Levi Yitzchak Children's Library, Cedarhurst, New York

<http://americanlibrariesmagazine.org/sites/default/files/2012/03/web-smalllevi-yitzchak.jpg>

Small Projects, Big Impact: The Levi Yitzchak Children's Library is a privately funded library for Jewish children's books that is open to the public. Each area is themed: The entrance hallway features lit panels showing the six days of creation, a Mitzvah Train provides reading nooks, a Torah scroll bulletin board exhibits children's work, and a puppet theater evokes the Jubilee Synagogue in Prague.

New Construction

Designer: Janice Davis Design LLC (<http://janicedavisdesign.com>)

Size: 3,200 sq. ft.

Cost: $145,000 (décor)

Photo: Chelsea Davis Images

Library Design Showcase 2012: Small Projects, Big Impact \(/content/library-design-showcase-2012-small-projects-big-impact\)

/al_focus/photos/after-school-anime-and-manga-club
After-school anime and manga club (/al_focus/photos/after-school-anime-and-manga-club)

/al_focus/photos/mancala-challenge
Mancala challenge (/al_focus/photos/mancala-challenge)

/al_focus/photos/crutcher-keynotes-dominican-university-youth-conference
Crutcher keynotes Dominican University youth conference (/al_focus/photos/crutcher-keynotes-dominican-university-youth-conference)

/al_focus/photos/original-state-charters-display-pitt
Original state charters on display at Pitt (/al_focus/photos/original-state-charters-display-pitt)